AN OPEN LETTER TO READERS OF THE EXPRESS-HERALD

The Globe and Mail came out this morning with a full-page statement showing that compulsory selective service, without limitations, was favored by 72 rural newspapers. Six were doubtful and three opposed. The Newmarket Era was among the six who held doubtful opinion.

I am ashamed of the weak-kneed attitude taken by the Newmarket Era. I don't agree that this fine Anglo-Saxon district is not in favor of an all-out effort to win the war.

The Era's attitude is the sort of hesitating sentiment that will lose a fight. Is it more desirable that the French population of Quebec and some others throughout Canada be allowed to shirk their responsibility? Or is it not better to have selective conscription and put up a two-fronted fight, and defeat Hitler in the shortest possible time, and get the job over with?

United States has compulsory selective military service. Now that they are in the war, why should we give them a chance to criticize our half-baked war effort. Selective conscription, if properly enforced, will put the man-power of Canada to work where each would serve to the best advantage.

Up until now, some men have enlisted from the farms who should not have been allowed to leave agriculture, as only experienced men are useful at that work. If the government has compulsory selective service to enforce, it can speak with authority, and every man will have to step up and do his duty, performing the work for which he is best adapted.

By this method we can quickly get an efficient military force on land, sea and in the air. We can also be assured that the military force will be properly supported, by food production, munitions, and war equipment of every kind.

Signed,
S. J. BOYD, M.D.
(Editor's note: This letter of Dr. Boyd's has also been sent to the Era. We thought Mr. Hobb's expression on the question very fair.)

SCRAP PICK-UP

The Scouts will have a scrap pick-up on the west side of the town Saturday, Jan. 10.

WOMEN OF COMMUNITY URGED TO ATTEND

The course of instruction which is being arranged by the N.H. & S. Association in conjunction with the local Red Cross will begin Tuesday evening, Jan. 6, at eight o'clock, in the Stuart Scott School. The object of this course is to educate all people in the following emergencies that might occur to them even in our own home district during this war in which we are now involved.

"Psychology of Emergencies, Surgical Shock, Wounds, Hemorrhage, Burns, Fractures, Sprains and Dislocations, Resuscitation from Drowning, Gas, Poison and Electric Shock, Air Raid Precautions."

It is hoped that everyone who can possibly attend will be out, and will register for the course. It is felt that the locality has been a little tardy in initiating work of this kind, and that centres have been carrying on work for many months, and some of them almost since the outbreak of war. Some municipalities have been so well prepared that they have actually staged a real evacuation of their population, thus demonstrating the efficiency they have developed in preparedness, and it is only by such training that Britain civilian population have been able to defend themselves.

It is hoped that we will not be subjected to conditions here such as those in Britain have suffered, but in the event of any unpleasant occurrences happening, we may be in a position to help one another. There may also be, from time to time, people who will be leaving us for theatres of war in one calling or another, and they will at least have an idea of how they should conduct themselves.

Apart from war training itself, the course embodies a very fine first aid training which will be to the advantage of everyone working in home, shop, school, factory or farm to know.

Doctors and nurses, and people who are already trained have kindly offered their services for this work. Events of major importance are happening very fast these days, and we should not delay any longer co-ordinated preparations to meet any emergencies.

This course is being put on with the sanction of the town council. Registration may be also made at the Red Cross rooms Wednesday afternoons or evenings. Demonstrations of a black-out will be given at this meeting by a number of the Newmarket training centre.

Mayor Loses Bet, Pays Ten Dollars

SALVAGE COMMITTEE FOR TOWN AND DISTRICT NAMED

Mayor Dales presented a cheque for $10 to Councillor Arthur Evans, chairman of the water and light committee, at council Monday night. The cheque was marked "betting losses."

Early in the year the mayor wagered that the committee would not get a hundred gallons a minute from a well sunk on Cotter street. He paid. The money will be used for a little get-together when the reservoir is officially opened.

The mayor regretted that the high school board had reverted to the old practise of not notifying the press when there was a meeting. "When I was on the board, we had the press there, and I think they should be," he declared. He thought that there should be closer co-operation between the board and other organizations cited the dispute over the use of the auditorium by the Red Cross and a request at one time from the military camp for use of the gym. The disbanding of the Girl Guides for lack of a proper place to meet was regrettable.

On motion of Deputy Vale, Ald. Joe Spilllette, Frank Bowser and Arthur Evans were named as a committee to head a salvage campaign which is being sponsored by the government. Mr. Vale was of the opinion that these energetic councillors would put real pep into the campaign.

A letter was received from the Presbytery of the United Church of Canada congratulating the people of Newmarket on the splendid vote on the recent liquor control question.

CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Many friends from town and a number from a distance called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Courtney on Christmas Day to wish them many happy returns of their 25th wedding anniversary.

A representative of the Boy Scouts will call on every household and merchant within a few days to arrange for storing and collection of all available scrap materials.

New Year's Greetings From The Mayor

As Mayor-elect of your town for 1942, may I wish to all loyal citizens a happier and more hopeful year than the one passing off the stage. Our supreme and most predominant resolution is to keep in step with the most patriotic municipalities of our Dominion in a united and unflinching war effort, and a complete willingness to respond to all the demands which will be placed upon us as individuals, churches, clubs or other organizations during 1942.

Your council will as in the past, give you leadership in war problems as well as in health and welfare plans for your town.

May 1942 bring to our Empire a clearer and brighter assurance of ultimate victory, and to all citizens a general and personal pride in the part well played by the municipality and each citizen in 1942.

L. W. DALES.

COMMITTEE HAD RAISED $1,000 FOR WAR WORK

The following two letters are self explanatory, and are, therefore, submitted without comment.

Newmarket, Ont., Dec. 9, 1941.

Mrs. R. L. Pritchard, Secretary, Entertainment Comm., Newmarket Red Cross, Newmarket, Ont.

Dear Mrs. Pritchard:

I am in receipt of your letter of 22nd of November, advising of the intention of the Newmarket Red Cross to hold another dance in the High School on the 9th of January, 1942.

Your letter was read to the meeting of the Board held this afternoon, and I was instructed to advise you of the Board's decision. It appears that the success of the efforts made by the Red Cross Society to properly police the building at the last dance was not satisfactory to the Board, and control of the situation seems to be getting out of hand. In addition, the caretaker was not compensated sufficiently for the extra effort placed on him. Consequently, I am instructed to advise you that (Continued on Page 8, Col. 4)

Reserves Judgment One Week In Liquor Case

LARGE QUANTITY OF LIQUIDS FOUND IN CAR

At the request of the accused, judgment was reserved for one week at Newmarket Police Court on Tuesday, in the case of Frank Welch of Pefferlaw, charged with keeping liquor for sale, illegal possession and soliciting orders.

"On November 14 at 7 p.m., about half a mile east of Pefferlaw, I stopped a car driven by accused," testified Constable William Hill. "On searching the car I found 32 cases of beer and eight bottles of liquor. The accused stated that his wife was sick in Lindsay hospital, and he had been over to see her and had brought the liquor and beer back. This was all covered by orders."

Miss Margaret Cuthbert of Lindsay, who works in the brewers' retail store, and Orval Patenaud of Toronto, manager of the retail store at Jackson's Point in the summer, identified various slips produced at court.

The accused admitted the signatures on slips from various brewers' warehouses and liquor stores.

"Welch worked in Johnson's store quite a bit, and I used to ask him if he was going over to Lindsay, and if he was going over would have him get me some beer," testified Harry Godfrey of Pefferlaw, a carpenter. "I usually got it the same day. I didn't pay him anything to get it."

"Frank is our next door neighbor and he used to go to Lindsay quite often to shop, and I would ask him to bring me some beer when he was going over," testified Mrs. Robert Godfrey. "We didn't have a car of our own."

Detective W. E. Martindale stated that he obtained slips from the Liquor Control Board showing that from September 29, 1941, to November 10, 1941, accused had purchased beer at the Lindsay store to the value of $368.65. From the brewers' retail store at Jackson's Point, in the period from September 1, 1941, to September 27, 1941, he had purchased beer to the value of $512.10.

Constable William Hill was recalled and stated that 61 different individuals had given accused orders from September 29 to November 10.

No defense was offered in this case.

NEWMARKET LADY DIES FOLLOWING ACCIDENT IN OTTAWA

Mrs. Frances M. Townley, who left Newmarket in November to spend the winter months with her son, Phillip, in Ottawa, died Christmas Day following an accident Christmas Eve, when a car in which she was riding collided with a truck in the Capital.

Born in town 80 years back she was the last surviving daughter of the family of Wm. Rowe, Newmarket's first postmaster, general store proprietor, fur trader and one of the prominent families in the community in its earliest days. She was enjoying the best of health when she left town for the winter.

The remains were taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) F. M. Brunton in Bradenton, Fl. Interment took place in Christ Church Cemetery there.

Surviving besides her daughter are four sons, Fred, Evelyn and Laurence of Vancouver, Phillip of Ottawa, and a brother, Albert, of Toronto. Her husband, Col. T. O. Townley former Vancouver barrister, died some four years ago. A son was killed in the last war.

NEW ARRIVALS BRING TOTAL CLOSE TO 100

Another heavy mail from the boys overseas has been received by the Veterans Soldiers' Comforts. The list of soldiers to send cigarettes and comforts to is fast approaching the hundred mark.

Contributions to this fund by organizations or individuals would be greatly appreciated. More money must be secured each month if the comforts are sent at the same rate.

Dear Bill,—
I'm very much afraid that it has been some time since I wrote to thank you for your organization's continued generosity in sending me cigarettes.

Believe me, they are greatly appreciated. Conditions here make it difficult to buy smokes at any price, and one is forced to rely more than ever on the kindness of friends.

While things are far from exciting compared to last winter, we manage to keep from being too fed-up, and the lads are for the most part well fed and well sheltered. Our unit is fortunate in being continually occupied, so that time does not hang too heavily on our hands.

This letter, with a bit of luck, should reach you somewhere about Christmas time, and I would be much obliged if you could pass on to the members of the Veterans my gratitude for their thoughtfulness, and my best wishes to them all for a hearty Christmas and a bigger and better New Year.

I occasionally see my brother-in-law, Jack Galbraith, and he also speaks of your welcome gifts. I know, therefore, that he would like me to pass on his good wishes too.

We should see action in the coming year, if ever we are to do so and perhaps when that time comes we will be able to do something to live up to the reputation that the boys established in the last mess here's hoping.

Meanwhile—thumbs up!

Gratefully,

Cpl. Jack Withrow

England.

Nov. 22, 1941.

Dear Bill:
I received a parcel from the Veterans and I wish to thank you very much. The food comes in very well when you feel like an extra snack in the evening, and I have not experienced many nights when I did not feel like it. It certainly is good of you folks.

My brother and Earl Cole of this Continued on page 8 col. 5.

Motions Passed

The reeve issued his order for the treasurer to pay the last debenture on school section No. 5, amounting to $959.03. School section No. 5 (Queensville) built a new school in 1909, and eight years before the debentures were paid off the school was burned. ## LEFT SCENE OF ACCIDENT FINED $100 AND COSTS

A resident of Yonge Street, charged by Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson with leaving the scene of an accident, was fined $100 and 14.50 costs or two months in jail by Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe at Newmarket Police Court last week. His license to drive was suspended for six months.

Peter Benner of Toronto, the driver of the other car involved in the accident, testified that as he was proceeding south on Yonge Street three miles north of Eagle Street on December 8th, a car travelling north came over on the wrong side of the road and struck him. "The whole left hand side of my car was struck," stated Mr. Benner. "The front mud-guard, back mud-guard, half the grill on the front and the grill of the engine were smashed, the damages amounting to $165. I immediately got out of my car but the other car didn't stop. I went into Proctor's house and phoned the police at Bradford. Constable Ferguson came about fifteen minutes later."

Mrs. Benner and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Lewis of Toronto, passengers in the Benner car, testified that they waited in the car while Mr. Benner went to phone, but the accused didn't return. Several cars passed, but they didn't stop. "I left the scene of the accident and got in touch with Constable Dean," stated Constable Ferguson.

"From information received, I made several trips past the residence of accused and on Wednesday, December 10th, I saw his car at his home and recognized it. I asked accused why he didn't stop at the accident on Monday night and he said that he did stop to straighten his fender out and chased the other car as far as Eagle Street. In about an hour's time he followed me to Bradford and wanted to know the easiest way to settle the matter. It was snowing that night but there was nothing to obscure the view of the Benner car parked on the side of the road."

Both accused and a passenger in his car testified that after the impact they stopped to fix the fender and turned around at the nearest sidewalk and went back as far as Eagle Street but didn't find the other car. On their way back they saw a car parked on the side of the road some distance from where the impact occurred, but noticed nothing strange about it.

A Toronto police officer testified that as he was coming up Yonge Street on December 8th, he noticed a car resembling the one driven by accused turn at the sidewalk at Poplar Bank and go south. He went to the home of accused and fifteen minutes later accused came home and told him about the accident.

"I think the stories told by these two men are ridiculous," commented His Worship. "This car is stopped within sixty feet of the impact, and there is no reason under the sun why these two people couldn't have seen the car. I am quite satisfied that he intended to escape civil or criminal liability. There is no doubt in my mind whatever."

Obviously very proud of their new dog, they were showing off his good points to a visitor. "Mind you," said the man of the house, "I know he's not what you might call a thoroughbred, but he's a splendid house dog. No tramp or burglar could get near the house without him letting us know about it."

"What does he do?" asked the visitor. "Bark the house down?" "Well—er no; he crawls under the bed."

Tank cars carry other goods besides oil—milk, molasses, and vinegar, for instance.

"So your son is in college? How is he making it?" "He isn't making it. I'm making it and he's spending it."

"Did you hear that every single prize in our band contest was carried off by one man?" "Good gracious. What did he get?" "Six months."

NEW YEAR'S GREETINGS 2500 YEARS AGO

Among the large number of glazed objects in the Royal Ontario Museum's Egyptian collection are three flasks of unusual form. They are circular in outline with flattened convex sides and they are decorated with delicately carved bands below the short, narrow neck and around the edges. The neck is flanked by tiny handles in the shape of monkeys. Bottles of this distinctive type are known as "New Year's flasks," because they often bear the inscription: "May the gods open a happy year for my master."

Although lentil-shaped bottles slightly resembling these appear at an earlier date, the "New Year flask," conforming to a rigid design, is confined to the Saite period (663-525 B.C.), when Egypt had already seen 2000 years of high civilization and was on the road to decay. It was, however, enjoying a short period of independence during which it sought inspiration in its great past. These "New Year flasks" reveal the technical excellence typical of their age.

The Egyptian New Year was originally in our July, but because their calendar of 365 days lacked a leap year, every four years their year slipped back a day. Exactly 2500 years ago, when these flasks were sent as greetings, the Egyptian New Year fell on our January 28.

MRS. JAMES ALBERT ROSE

SUCCUMBS TO STROKE

A resident of Newmarket for the past 23 years, Fannie Reesor, wife of the late James Albert Rose passed away at her late residence, 47 Strigley street, on Wednesday, December 24, in her 76th year. Mrs. Rose suffered a slight stroke some two weeks back, but was only confined to her bed since Sunday.

Born in Markham, the daughter of Josephus Reesor and Mary Kelington, she resided for many years in the Queensville district, with her husband a well known farmer of North Gwillimbury. A kindly, quiet lady and good neighbor, she will be missed by a wide circle of friends.

The funeral service on Friday at the Christian Church was conducted by the Rev. Arthur Greer, assisted by Rev. Slingerland. Interment took place in the family plot in Queensville cemetery.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Chesley Scott (Mary) of Sutton, Nellie at home, three sons, Walter, Queensville; Corp. Ross at the local camp, and Carl at home; a brother, George, of Toronto, and three sisters, Mrs. William Fairbairn, Mrs. Thos. Fairley, Sr., and Mrs. Joseph Kirk.

On Tuesday Friends' Sunday school held their annual Christmas tree party. This year, instead of the children receiving gifts from Santa, they presented envelopes for children of London, England, and the sum of $3.67 was given to Santa to be sent to England before the end of the year. Altogether 560 articles of clothing have been sent out this year.

100-ACRE FARM AT NEW-

MARKET CHANGES HANDS

$20,000 Is Reported Selling Price
Of Well-Equipped Property,
With Modern Buildings

Growing demand is reported for good Central Ontario farm lands. An improved plot of 100 acres was sold recently at Newmarket for a reported consideration of $20,000. The sale was negotiated through the offices of A. E. Smith Company.

The property is probably the best known in its neighborhood and is generally regarded as a model of what may be accomplished in the way of development by experienced Canadian agriculturists. It has been named "Belle Ayr Jersey Farm," and is located on the outskirts of Newmarket on Lot 35, 3rd Concession of Whitchurch.

The farm-house is a thoroughly modern, ten-room brick residence, featuring all the utilities, equipment and appointments of an urban home. There is also a modern dwelling devoted to the housing of farm workers.

Two dairy barns, designed by dairy experts, and two commodious silos constitute the principal structural items of the premises. Stabling and sheds and utility buildings are all of approved modern design.

The vendor of "Belle Ayr Jersey Farm" was Mrs. Wilfred Duffy, who acquired the property in 1929 from Dr. Wesley. The purchaser, Earl Walton, of Scarborough, takes possession in March, 1942.

WHITCHURCH MAN WAS AT

HONG KONG

Pte. Edward Barlow, well known in army sports circles, was with the Canadian troops in Hong Kong his wife learned in a cable from him. She lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Berg, in Whitchurch township, near Gormley. He and Mrs. Barlow, formerly Oda Berg, were married in Aurora last August.

Before joining the army, Pte. Barlow worked in several war plants in Toronto suburbs. While at Camp Borden he won a reputation as a swimmer and captured a cup during the camp swimming meet. He was swimming instructor at the base.

In September he left Camp Borden for Petawawa and thence went to Hong Kong. Born in Lancashire, Eng., he came to Canada 17 years ago. On Monday he celebrated his 30th birthday.

MAN KILLED NEAR

OAK RIDGES

Inquest Is Ordered

Henry Burgess, 55-year-old night watchman at the Toronto Ski Club, was almost instantly killed last Wednesday night when struck by an automobile on the Yonge Street highway at Oak Ridges, during a heavy downpour.

According to Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson, who is still investigating the accident, Burgess was apparently walking in the centre of the roadway when struck by a northbound automobile driven by William Wilmut, of Sharon, Ont. Wilmut said he did not see the pedestrian until it was too late to avoid striking him.

Coroner Dr. A. J. Devins, of Aurora, ordered a post mortem conducted by Dr. G. W. Williams. It was found that Burgess sustained a fractured skull, rupture of the kidney, several fractured ribs and severe internal injuries. Coroner Devins announced that an inquest would be held at a later date.

Burgess, who lived about two miles from the scene of the accident, was on his way to the Ski Club. He was apparently walking in the same direction as the car, and unaware of its approach.

AGRICULTURAL REPRESENTATIVE

APPEALS TO FARMERS

An urgent appeal to all farmers to take stock of their implement repairs for the 1942 season has come from Agricultural Representative W. M. Cockburn at Newmarket.

Just how urgent this appeal is stressed by the fact that farm implement parts are not on the war-time priority list, and implement dealers may not be able to fill orders next year.

"Each of us realizes a definite labour shortage for '42," said W. M. Cockburn, "and this will only be aggravated if the farmer has to wait for repair parts which he could have obtained this winter. I feel very strongly that this is one way in which the farmer can help himself to save several hours, if not days, next season."

He went on to explain that the farmer knows the main working parts of each implement and an inspection of these would quite often reveal where a break might occur. The seriousness of the shortage of parts is shown by the fact that farm machinery companies are calling in from local dealers many of their parts in stock so that these may be pooled for the benefit of the farmers across the whole Dominion.

Quiz

By Golden Glow.

We seem to have taken to puzzles, contests and quiz programmes on the radio like a duck to water. In earlier days when one gave a mixed party, I mean young and old, those who enjoyed cards and games and those who did not, it was quite the thing to have contests. I recall at one such party a number of small articles were placed on a table, the table was quite apart from other things, and the articles were placed so that each could be readily seen, then two people took hold of your arms, one at each side, and hurried you through the room—you having been previously told to make good use of your eyes. You were taken out of the room into one where those still waiting were not near and you were told to write down what you saw. After all had been trotted through the room and left their list they were checked up and the one who had the longest correct list carried off the prize.

You know it is because at Christmas parties especially we try to draw everybody into the Christmas games, for it is only Christmas once a year, and we can well afford to leave the radio turned off for the length of time it takes to join in a few such jolly round games that keep alive the spirit of Christmas. There are many such games that people unwrap from their Christmas wrappings at this time of year—Chair Dance, Stage Coach, Gentle Lady—yes, even the old Blind Man's Buff, and Buffy in the Ring, to say nothing of Nuts-a-May and Post Office, where I sent a letter to my love and on the way I lost it, a little doggie picked it up and put it in his pocket. He won't bite you, and he won't bite you—but he will bite you (with a resounding thump on the back as the two speed round the circle in opposite directions).

Do you want to know how I came to write on this subject? Quite simple, I assure you. I was looking in my cook-book for a recipe and out fell a sheet of newspaper, and looking to see what it was, I discovered it was an old contest that I'd taken part in long years ago—I expect everyone is familiar with it, but maybe you, like myself, had forgotten it. I've seen it in my cook-book times with-out number and no doubt have written it up and replaced it if it fell out on the floor—but I never bothered with it till to-day. Somehow it caught my imagination and I stopped to read it over.

It is "Name Thirteen Things You Can Find in a Cent." And here is the list: 1. A snake; 2. a messenger; 3. a country; 4. a fruit; 5. an animal; 6. a flower; 7. a building; 8. a top of a hill; 9. part of a river; 10. a beverage; 11. yourself; 12. Canadian emblem; 13. a girl's name.

Now, if I did things correctly to Hoyle, I'd say I'd give the answers next week—but if you want to work out the answers yourself why don't cheat—cover up this next part till you have found all you can—then uncover this and compare it with your answers:

1. a snake; Copper-head.
2. a messenger; I cent (one sent).
3. a country; Canada.
4. a fruit; date.
5. an animal; hair (hare, pardon the spelling).
6. a flower; Tulips (two lips).
7. a building; either bridge or temple.
8. a top of a hill; crown or brow.
9. part of a river; mouth.
10. a beverage; Tea (T).
11. yourself; Eye (I).
12. Canadian Emblem; Maple Leaf

Rev. Dr. Runnells will begin a series of sermons on "The Ten Commandments," next Sunday evening, Jan. 4, at 7 o'clock, in Trinity United Church.

God's Ten Words

The Voice From Sinai

ONE GOD

I. Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

THE JEALOUS GOD

II. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

THE HOLY NAME

III. Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain.

THE HOLY DAY

IV. Remember the Sabbath Day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou nor thy son nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day; wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.

THE PARENT AND CHILD

V. Honour thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

THE SACREDNESS OF LIFE

VI. Thou shalt not kill.

HOLY CHASTITY

VII. Thou shalt not commit adultery.

PROPERTY SACRED

VIII. Thou shalt not steal.

A CLEAN TONGUE

IX. Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

ETERNAL CONTEMPT

X. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

The Minister will preach on the Commandments each Sunday evening until the series is concluded. Pray for the Spirit's baptism and power.

BRITISH-ISRAEL

Last Sunday evening Rev. James Dawe addressed the meeting of the British-Israel World Federation in St. Paul's Parish Hall at 8.30, taking for his subject "The British American Alliance in Prophecy." He based his talk on the 48th chapter of Genesis, where it recounts the blessing of the two sons of Joseph, by his father Jacob, or Israel, putting them on a level with his own sons, thus bringing Egypt into union with Israel, for Joseph was married to an Egyptian princess.

He showed, how in blessing the two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh, Jacob crossed his hands thus giving Ephraim, the younger, the birthright blessing. "The crossing thus of his hands," he declared, "that and the Cross of Christ, was the basis of the cross on our Union Jack—the union between Britain and the United States, for Ephraim is Britain's, and Manasseh is the United States of America." It was a splendid address, and so appropriate at the present time. The Sunday radio address of Rev. P. J. Springett was particularly interesting also. Mr. Dawe asked his hearers to support the radio fund.

Things

"New Year Thoughts"

On New Year's Day we take a look at the year that's past and gone; Some things please us, some do not. That we look back upon.

At many a time we sadly failed. To do what we thought best, We just forgot, or maybe left To someone else—the rest.

We might have done some kindly deed.

Or said some pleasant word, Self consciousness caught up with us And made them seem absurd.

New Year's resolutions may Be made, just to be broken, But there is one, I'll try to keep If I've to wear a token.

I'll do the kind thing, double quick, Or say the friendly say, Not put it off and idly think "I'll do some other day."

For I have found, and so will you, For it is true indeed, If you will keep your New Year's vows,

Then you must act with speed,

So "do it now" will be the note, On which our year begins, And at its end we'll audit it, And see if this vow wins!

(Week of Dec. 25)

On Thursday evening, December 18th, a record crowd gathered at Bogartown schoolhouse for the Children's night — second only in childhood annals to "the night before Christmas," the night when latent talent has a chance to show itself, and let the listeners catch a glimpse of where the young idea is tending. Three beautiful old Carols opened the proceedings, followed by the chairman's address, which stressed the need for thankfulness for the peace and security of Canada. Mr. Stickwood also said that the collection taken at the concert would be for the British War Victims' Fund. A drill by eight boys followed, and it was VERY funny. Miss McQueen and Miss Harper must have a charm for getting children to do what they want, for these boys were aproned and carried large dolls, and illustrated a father's difficulties when he turns nursemaid.

A pretty Cantata, "A Joke on Santa Claus," was the "pièce de resistance" and very good; it was reflecting great credit on teacher, music teacher and pupils. Solos, duets and trios were well taken. A solo reminiscent of Gilbert and Sullivan's in regard to eats, was sung by David Preston. A pretty duet by Erla Toole and Mareen Bergen, and another, responsive to Miss Frances Stickwood's "good-night song," were excellently rendered, as was also a solo by Miss Alta Drury, as the Christmas spirit Carols, led by Mrs. Colville, and then Santa appeared to distribute gifts to all, and with the singing of the National Anthem, the Christmas concert ended. I forgot to mention that in the absence of Mrs. Elmer Starr, Mrs. Gordon McClure presented the Temperance contest prizes. She told us that 11 Bogartown and 34 Pine Orchard students wrote on these papers.

Mrs. Colville's annual party for the girls of the neighborhood took place on Saturday afternoon. The twin stars on the two trees, traditional at Ingle side, looked down on a gay group. The girls present were the Misses Gladys and Irene Harper, Frances Stickwood, Huldah Starr, Joyce VanLoven, Betty Hope, Norma and Alta Drury Erla Toole, Irene McNicol, Doris Penrose, Florence Tucker, Audrey Hunt, Audrey and Grace Sproxtton, Dora McClure and Marion Bergen. Games were played, charades acted, carols sung, then all sat down to supper arranged in the headresses that come out of nice bany crackers. An exchange of gifts and a little programme put on by the girls brought the afternoon to a close.

Mr. Francis Starr left lately for the Montreal River Camp where he will work for the next four months. This camp is operated by the Government on a compulsory basis for those who are exempt from military services on conscientious grounds.

The Pine Orchard school's Christmas concert was held before a capacity audience on Friday evening, December 19th.

A Cantata, "Sit-Down Strike,"—this referring to Santa Claus' helpers, was the theme and was excellently carried through. As I was unable to be present, I cannot write with the fullness I could wish, but reports say that the singing and acting were both excellent and equally so, in the playlet which followed.

Carols and piano solos and a recitation by Beth Johnston were also splendid, as were the solos in the Cantata. One can only congratulate teacher and pupils in the excellent work done.

And now may I wish the editor and staff of this paper, and the readers who receive this column so kindly, a very beautiful Christmas tide.

At Christmas

Hemlock and cedar, spruce and fir—which of these trees, do you prefer? When you see them, tall and green, silvered o'er with tinsel sheen, all aglow with baubles gay, silver foil in fine display. Then, atop, a glittering star, carrying you to days afar; back to days as dark as our's, when Rome wielded world-wide powers, when Judea lay in chains groaning with her slavish pains; trying, fighting to be free, just like conquered lands we see. But one glorious night, a child, sweet and gentle, meek and mild, came to earth while heaven rang with the song the angels sang. Songs first heard where shepherds kept watch while all around them slept. Wise men, too, had seen from far, a most wondrous glowing star, followed it and came where lay, Jesus, in His nest of hay. Laid rich gifts at Mary's feet, bowing low, the Babe to greet, knowing they had found the King, who only could salvation bring to a seething, hating earth, giving it a great re-birth. Now, as Christmas time draws near, let us greet it with good cheer, lay aside our fears and pain, feel that Christ is born again, and again, with angels sing "Glory to the New Born King."

Oh Ho!

"Yes," said his proud mother, "John is such a good boy, and so fond of dumb animals. Why only last night I heard him say in his sleep: 'Feed the kitty, feed the kitty!'"

"I intimate that I should like to see you do it!"

New Years greetings for all at home who read this, and especially for our boys in uniform wherever they may be.

Christmas day was sunny and bright, and ideal for motoring, but the ground now is covered with a light snow, the day nearly frozen over and the children hoping for still colder weather and skating on the lake.

Mrs. A. Gilroy and Miss Eva Gilroy spent a few days at Oakville with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Gilroy, over the Christmas holiday, returning Saturday.

Our deepest sympathy to the widow and family of Mr. William George Pollard, who passed away suddenly at Toronto on Thursday, Dec. 25, in his 74th year. He was buried at Queensville Dec. 27, the service being held in Keswick United Church on Saturday. Mr. Pollard has resided in North Gwillimbury many years, and was a highly respected member of Keswick United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Pollock spent Christmas day at Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy's, Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Perry entertained at a family dinner on Christmas day, with Mr. and Mrs. Cattell, Mrs. and Miss Marion Main and Mr. Johnston Perry of Toronto as guests.

WOULD ALTER MIKADO AND MAKE ROOSEVELT

The Michigan village of Mikado, which was christened fifty-five years ago in honor of the Emperor of Japan, wants to change its name. Its 125 citizens are distressed that Mikado is a symbol of a nation with which the United States is at war. A movement is under way to rename the town Roosevelt. Residents recalled that in the Great War the town of Berlin, in Ottawa County, changed its name to Marne.

New Chapel Dedicated on Christmas Eve

The beautiful new funeral chapel which Mr. Wesley Theaker has just completed, was opened on Christmas Eve. It is a very lovely building, complete with family room, operating room, as well as a large chapel with organ, etc.

While the crowd was gathering and inspecting the chapel, Miss Leek played quiet music. Then Mr. Ray Stewart, accompanied by Mrs. George Walsh, led in singing of Christmas Carols for half an hour. Miss Freda Thompson, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Cupples, sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem," after which Rev. R. V. Wilson spoke briefly on the beauty of the chapel and that the building of this building, which had long been a dream of Mr. Theaker, should be a pride to not only Mr. Theaker but to the community.

The scripture lesson was the story of the Dedication of the Temple of Solomon, in the Book of Kings, after which Rev. Mr. Wilson dedicated the chapel by prayer. Then followed the singing of more Christmas Carols, led by Mr. Jas. Smith with Mrs. Couper at the organ and Mrs. Haigh alternately.

NEWS FROM KING CITY AND DISTRICT

New Year's greetings to all with a wish for peace and happiness throughout the coming year. According to proclamation, every heart will gladly be offered to prayer on New Year's day, that God will bless our cause and guide our leaders and rulers; that the people may find their way and be witnesses to truth, justice and mercy.

The Christmas season has passed over well, each grateful for homes, friends and loved ones. Many have been called upon to endure bereavement, toll and disappointment, but have done so bravely and unflinchingly, knowing the promise of peace, good-will toward men will eventually be the stronger force in men's minds.

Observance of the universal week of prayer will be held in King and Eversley from Jan. 5 to Jan. 8. Ministers are co-operating in all four churches, and it is their hope that each prayer meeting be well attended.

Ross; vice president, Mrs. Scott Bovair; secretary, Mrs. Howard Neill; assistant, Mrs. H. Cairns; treasurer, Mrs. Walter Rolling; visiting convenor, Mrs. A. B. Weiss. The death of Mrs. A. ## MORE LETTERS FROM BOYS OVERSEAS

(Continued from page 1 Col. 3) regiment received it too. I have met Art Dobbie recently. He and Howard Brown are stationed near us. I missed Brownie. The day I was in was to have been Art's wedding day.

We are still O.K. here. Things are quiet and pretty much the same. Thanks for remembering us.

Yours,

I thank you and the other members of the Newmarket Veterans for the very nice parcel you sent me. It was great to have some Canadian butter for a change from margarine. The cheese, meat and tea comes in very nicely for a lunch before bedtime. Treats like that are hard to get over here.

Again I express my sincere thanks for the work you are doing for us boys overseas.

Sincerely yours,

R. W. Blencowe.

Dear Veterans and Friends,—

Just received another carton of smokes from you. And just in time, too! We're having typical English November weather here. Many of you veterans are Old Country men, and you will know what I mean.

One of our boys has been mentioning the question of leave to Canada. I'd like very much to be able to fly to Canada, even if only for a short leave. It would make me feel one hundred percent better to get back to a country that is not at all war!

However, I shall be satisfied with wishing you all a very Merry Xmas and lots of turkey!

Sincerely yours,

Cpl. Jas. R. White.

Nov. 21, 1941.

Just a few lines to let you know that I received the parcel of tobacco you Vets. sent me, and I am very grateful to you for everything you have sent me. Well, it sure is good to be able to get some cigarettes and tobacco sent to us from your boys back home, and thanks very much for them.

Well Bill, everything is so dear over here that the boys in the army can't hardly buy a thing now, in fact, everything over here is rationed, and you have to have a coupon before you can even buy a pair of socks, or even any kind of clothes that a fellow needs, and the same goes for foods of all kinds, and things are getting that dear it is almost impossible to live in this country.

Well Bill, there are two of us in the army from the same family now, because they got my wife in uniform as well. She is in the A.T.S. down in Exeter, that is in Heaven, on the southwest coast, and so far she says she likes it in the army, but I guess she will change her mind about it before she is in it over two years like I am now, and a lot of other boys here as well from Canada are fed up with this thing they call war. I think myself if something doesn't soon happen over here there will be a war between the English and the Canadians.

Well Bill, I am back in the hospital again for a while, but hope I will soon be out of here, anyhow before Christmas at least.

Well boys, many thanks again for the cigarettes and tobacco you have sent me since I have been in England.

RED CROSS REGRET SCHOOL BOARD ATTITUDE

in the future, the sum of $10 must be paid to the caretaker for each evening to provide for extra expenses in preparing the school and cleaning afterwards, and to provide a policeman to supervise the parking of automobiles.

The responsibility for properly policing the interior of the school still rests with the Red Cross Society, and unless considerable improvement is shown in this regard at the next dance, over the condition that prevailed at the last one, the Board will have to reconsider the advisability of allowing the school to be used for public dances in the future. It is hoped this course will not be necessary.

Respectfully yours,

(Signed) A. M. Mills,

Sec. Treas. Newmarket

High School Board

Newmarket, Ont.,

Dec. 15, 1941.

A. M. Mills, Esq., Sec. Treas. Newmarket High School Board, Newmarket, Ont.

Dear Mr. Mills: Your letter of Dec. 9 regarding the Red Cross dance to be held on Jan. 9, 1942, was read this afternoon at a meeting of the local Red Cross executive and the entertainment committee.

The High School Board were requested to send representatives to this meeting, but none found it convenient to be present.

The matter was discussed very fully and the following conclusions were arrived at:

In the first place, we should like to draw your attention to the fact that this committee is operating owing to the war over which none of us had any control, and their services are voluntary. The Red Cross is the one and only cause which give everyone an opportunity for service at this time. This committee has raised, in the course of one year, close to $1,000, which it will be impossible to raise if these dances have to be discontinued. The committee has no intention of using the town hall or any other hall in town owing to lack of facilities.

The government does not permit us to have a Red Cross drive this year, and they are urgently in need of money which will have to be raised through other activities.

We feel we have not the co-operation of your caretaker that we should have in a case of this kind. At the last dance, the barricades were not put at the stairs and the signs regarding "no smoking" were not put up as requested by the committee. Also we understand, from some of the committee members, that their sons have helped remove the chairs from the auditorium on Friday evenings when there is to be a dance. Under these circumstances, we do feel that your caretaker is well repaid for any small amount of work or responsibility he may have, and we do not feel we should be expected to pay him more than the usual $5, in addition to which, of course, we expect to pay the man who parks the cars as usual.

We feel in all fairness to the entertainment committee that the opinion of some three hundred guests who attended the last dance should have some weight with the board. It was considered the most orderly and best conducted dance they have had yet, and there were no improprieties of any kind.

A motion was passed at the meeting that this letter be sent to the board for their consideration, with a request for a reply by Wed., Dec. 17, in order that the committee may go forward with their plans for the dance of Jan. 9, in this week's issue of the papers. Unless a reply is received by Dec. 17, this letter along with the board's letter of Dec. 9, will be put before the public through the local press, so they may understand the reason for discontinuing the Red Cross dances.

This motion was passed by the unanimous vote of the following members: Mrs. Tod, Mrs. Howson, Mrs. VanderVoort, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Stephens, Mrs. Bosworth, Mrs. Leach, Mrs. Morris, Mrs. McClelland, Mrs. Case, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Stiver, Mrs. Courtney, Mrs. Perry, Mrs. Spooner, Mrs. Pritchard, Mrs. McCaffrey, Mrs. Bender and Mrs. Cody.

Yours truly,

(Signed)

(Mrs. H.) Gladys McClelland,

Secretary, Newmarket Branch;

(Mrs. R. L.) Gladys Pritchard,

Sec. Entertainment Com.

MORE LONG DISTANCE CALLS LESS DELAYS ON CHRISTMAS

Long distance telephone calls placed on Christmas Day were substantially greater in number and delays in completing calls, due to busy circuits, were reduced considerably in comparison with last year.

"Station to station" calls were in the majority and the busiest period was between the hours of 11 and 12 a.m. A number of "Long Haul" calls were placed with complete satisfaction to the calling parties.
